WHAT'S GOING ON.

FIVE MINUTES WITH THE BIG NEWS OF THE WORLD.

Congressional Doings.

Congressional Doings.

The Senate is still debating the Philippine tariff, which will come to a vote next Monday. The Senate has ratified the treaty whereby the United States acquires the Danish West Indies for $5,000,000. The Senate has passed the bill making the census bureau permanent. The Senate made a record Friday by passing 127 private pension bills in 55 minutes. The House has passed the anti-oleomargarine bill, the war revenue repeal measure and a resolution in favor of electing senators by direct vote. Mr. Wheeler of Kentucky made a rabid speech against the "flunksyism" shown by the state department in negotiations with Great Britain, and in the present visit of the German prince. Mr. Gillett of Massachusetts replied.

Prince Henry On the Way.

The royal yacht Hohenzollern that is to take part in the ceremonies attending the christening of Emperor Wilhelm's Americhristening of Emperor Withelm's American-built yacht has arrived at New York. Prince Henry is crossing the Atlantic on the liner Kronprinz Wilhelm, and is expected to arrive in New York Feb. 22. Admiral Evans commands the special American squadron that is to do him honor at New York. The Prince will spend about two weeks in America. He will visit New York, Washington, Baltimore, Boston and make a scuthern and western trip before his return. The yacht is to be rip before his return. The yacht is to be annehed next Tuesday at Shooter's island.

It is announced that Miss Stone, the American missionary who had been held captive by Bulgarian brigands since Sept. 3d, has been released by her captors, to whom the ransom demanded had been paid, and has been handed over to the dragoman of the American legation in good health. The husband of Madam Tsilka, the native woman who was kidnapped with Miss Stone, has been arrested for complicity in the kidnapping. It is announced that Miss Stone,

Biggest Blizzard Since '88.

What is reported to be the biggest blizzard since 1888 raged through New York state the first of the week. From four to 18 inches of snow fell, and a high wind
piled it into huge drifts, in one instance, 25 feet deep. New York city caught the full force of the storm. It took 4,000 men to clear the streets of snow. Ten inches fell there. Southern New England felt the blizzard severely. Traffic was delayed in all directions.

To Curb Russian Greed

To Curb Russian Greed

The new Anglo-Japanese treaty has caused much comment in diplomatic circles. The two nations virtually guarantee the integrity of China and Cerea for five years. If, within that time either party is attacked by another power the ally will remain neutral unless some other power goes to the aid of the attacking power, when the ally will take up arms also. The alliance is made to put an end to the aggression of Russia.

British Wanted to Intervene.

It has been established that Lord Paunce It has been established that Lord Pauloc-fote, the British ambassador at Washing-ton, took the initiative in the steps toward intervention by foreign powers at the be-ginning of the Spanish war. The British explanation is that Paulocefote acted mere-ly as the dean of the corps, and not as the representative of his government.

Undaunted by Danger.

Santos-Dumout had another narrow cape while sailing in his airship over the bay of Monaco last week. Owing to im-perfect inflation, the ship carecined, be-came entangled in the anchor ropes and rapidly descended into the bay. The bal-loon was wrecked, but the aeronaut only got a ducking.

Old Boer Trick Repeated.

A British detachment of 150 mounted A British detachment of 150 mounted infantrymen were led into a Boer trap last week and lost heavily under a merciless cross-fire before their officers could extricate them. A force of British constabulary also met with loss by coming in contact with a force of Boers.

Sankey in a Hot Place

The great Kellogg Sanitarium at Battle Creek, Mich., was burned Tuesday. Of the 400 inmates, only one perished. Ira D. Sankey was an inmate, and escaped by climbing down a fire escape.

Fatal European Riots.
